Every single event has its own unique facets, be it a show stopping product launch, a social gathering or even an intimate brainstorming session, and at all Starwood Hotels and Resorts in Malaysia there is a perfect setting and ambience to meet the requirements of the most demanding meeting planner.

In Malaysia's business hub of Kuala Lumpur the options are virtually limitless. MICE events and social gatherings are elevated to a whole new level at Le Meridien Kuala Lumpur. The recently refurbished Metropolis pillar-less ballroom and meeting rooms are complemented with the groundbreaking new addition of the Gallery – an interactive social and business space featuring sensory-rich contemporary decor and high-tech functionality. This versatile medium sized venue can comfortably accommodate up to 140 persons in an array of set ups, from a classroom-style training session, a multimedia presentation, board meeting or a dynamic cocktail party.

In a compelling contrast Sheraton Imperial Kuala Lumpur is the definitive choice for large scale social events with more than 23,000 square feet of elegant function space comprising 13 standout meeting rooms. The opulently furnished Nusantara Ballroom, with six metre high ceilings, is the ultimate venue for a grand occasion, accommodating up to 1,000 guests. Supported by a full service banquet team, the stage is perfectly set for full-scale conferences, or a range of lavish social gatherings. In addition there are numerous options for a more casual, intimate event in conventional meeting rooms supported with innovative technology and casual indoor and outdoor spaces.

Located in the heart of the Golden Triangle, the 443-room Westin Kuala Lumpur features a compelling mix of flexible meeting space and boardrooms to remain focused and productive by day, while stunning lifestyle events capture the imagination in the hotel's dedicated function and exhibition space. The days of staid, uninspiring meetings are a thing of the past at Aloft Kuala Lumpur. Contemporary flair meets ambient lighting and the most innovative technology around, ensuring a creative dynamic at every meeting.

Starwood's Four Points by Sheraton hotels in Penang, Puchong and Sandakan each set the mood for memorable seminars, a mid-sized exhibition, promotional event or social gathering. A carefree atmosphere and attentive service are the hallmarks of a great Four Points stay and is tailor made for mixing work and play effortlessly.

Creating a visually appealing first impression is essential for a successful event and Le Méridien Kota Kinabalu's captivating views over the South China Sea do just that. The Andaman, a Luxury Collection Resort located in an idyllic tropical setting in Langkawi takes the art of business out onto the beachfront, providing every event with a wow factor. It is not surprising the resort is one of the most sought after for tropical destination weddings. Within the sprawling resort, the beach or rainforest areas can be transformed into an extraordinary outdoor function spaces for groups of all sizes. The one-of-a-kind setting is sure to spark creativity and inspire delegates.
